Mystery Surrounds the Death of George Tanner.

HIS DEAD BODY FOUND

HAD A BULLET HOLE THROUGH THE NECK.

Was Discovered at a Sheep Camp Near Evanston, But Whether a Murder, Suicide or Accident the Circumstances Do Not Discloss-Body Taken to Payson.

George Loray Tanner, aged 19, of Payson, was found dead at a sheep camp ten miles north of Evanston. Wyo, early Wednesday morning. A bullet hole through his neck disclosed the cause of death, though it failed to give any clue to the circumstances surrounding it.

Young Tanner was seen by an acquaintance on Tuesday afternoon. He was then in good spirits and apparently satisfied with himself and the world. On the following morning he was found dead on the prairie. His watch and money were on his person, and there was nothing to indicate that a murder had been committed. The news was nothing to indicate that a murder had been committed. The news as nothing to indicate that a murder had been committed. The news taken to Evanston and an official inquiry begun by the coroner of Umta county, whose jury brought in a verdict of "accidental killing."

The young mans people were notified, and Mr. Tanner went to Evanston for the body of his son. He returned yesterday. In discussing the sad occurrence with a Herald reporter he said he was utterly unable to comprehend how the boy was killed, whether by himself or by some others hand, either, defered the committee on bills and overfures, of which Dr. Wallace Radelliff of Washington, D. Jim McTierney, the well known bartender at the Onyx saloon, is mourn-ing the loss of his diamond watch charm which he valued at $200. The charm which he valued at $200. The charm was "nipped" while Jimmy was leaving Ringlings circus Wednesday night. He says somebody shoved him violently from behind as he passed through the main entrance and he looked around to tell the fellow not to be in such a hurry.

At the same time he felt a twitch at his vest but paid no attention to it until he got down town and somebody asked him what had became of his charm. McTierney has no hope of recovering the missing ornament but he declares he would like to lay violent hands for a few minutes on the man that got it.
